countries, thus maintaining its broad diversification. During the month, the Fund made one new investment in Panama for a total value of USD 0.25 million. Through its investments, the Fund finances approximately 8,400 end clients, 46% of which are women and 29% of which live in rural areas.

The important microfinance markets developments at the beginning of the year. In India, the banking sector has shown some signs of stress with non-performing loans reaching 7% of the total banking lending volume and still increasing. This is not to be confused with the microfinance sector, but is something that has led to a slowdown in traditional credit markets, with banks becoming increasingly cautious across client segments. The Indian economy is however still on a growth path with a projected GDP growth standing just above 7% for the fiscal year 2018-19, testifying to the huge potential of the country, which remains largely under banked. In Cambodia, the National Bank of Cambodia recently released two decrees aiming at mitigating systemic risks linked to sustained high credit growth. One decree requires all Non-Bank Financial Institutions to have a general provision of 1%, and the other requires the creation of capital conservation and countercyclical buffers as set forth in the Basel III regulatory reforms. This is widely seen as a positive development and testifies to the development towards
